YORKSHIRE PRIDE

Taken from Wikipedia

The people of Yorkshire are immensely proud of both their county and their identity, embracing the popular nickname of "God's Own County" given to Yorkshire. It is sometimes suggested that Yorkshire men identify more strongly with their county than they do with their country. The most common stereotype of a Yorkshire person is being tight with money: there is a British saying that "a Yorkshire man is a Scotsman with all the generosity squeezed out of him", which references how Scots are also stereotyped as being tight but not as tight as Yorkshire folk. This stereotype can also be seen in the Yorkshire man's Motto:

'Ear all, see all, say nowt;

Eyt all, sup all, pay nowt;

And if ivver tha does owt fer nowt

Allus do it fer thissen.

Translation: 'Hear all, see all, say nothing; Eat all, drink all, pay nothing; And if ever you do anything for nothing - always do it for yourself.

The culture of Yorkshire has developed over the county's history, taking influences from the cultures of those who came to control the region, including the Celts, Romans, Angles, Vikings, Normans and more. Yorkshire people have been said to hold a strong sense of regional identity and have been viewed to identify more strongly with their county than their country.

Yorkshire people are often stereotyped as being friendly but "bloody-minded", stubborn (also known as "Yorkshire-stubborn") and argumentative. Indeed throughout the history of the area, going back to the time of the tribal Brigantes, through the Norman period and Wars of the Roses, the region has seen a number of rebellions against non-Yorkshire or non-Northern rulers. It is this stereotype which is referred to in the saying 'You can always tell a Yorkshire man, but you can't tell him much' Tyke is now a colloquialism used to identify the Yorkshire dialect, as well as the term some Yorkshire men affectionately use to describe themselves, especially in the West Riding. Originally "tyke" was used as a highly derogatory adjective, meaning "a crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or refinement"; southerners used the term against Yorkshire men, but in defiance of the negative connotations it was adopted locally, taking on a new life.

The most famous traditional song of Yorkshire is "On Ilkla Moor Baht 'at" ("On Ilkley Moor without a hat"), it is considered the unofficial anthem of the county. In celebration of its culture, Yorkshire Day has been celebrated annually on 1 August since 1975.

In the London 2012 Olympics, competitors from Yorkshire won 7 gold medals, 2 silver and 3 bronze. If Yorkshire had been treated as a country it would have come twelfth in the overall medal table Cricket

Yorkshire County Cricket Club represent the historic county in first-class cricket, they compete in the County Championship against 17 others, playing at their home ground of Headingley, Leeds. Yorkshire is by far the most successful in the history of the championship: they have won the title on 30 separate occasions. Their nearest competitor in titles achieved is Surrey, who has won it 18 times

Yorkshire is officially recognised by FIFA as the birthplace of club football, as Sheffield FC who were founded in 1857 are certified as the oldest association football club in the world. South Yorkshire hosted the first ever inter-club match and the first ever local derby on 26 December 1860; between Sheffield FC and Hallam FC.

The City of Leeds Hosts the most successful Rugby League Club in modern times, The Leeds Rhinos, sharing the famous Headingley Stadium with the Yorkshire County Cricket Club.

There are several instances of the county providing an important role in literature, perhaps the most famous literacy association is that between Whitby in North Yorkshire and Bram Stoker's Dracula. The Brontë sisters, Anne Brontë, Charlotte Brontë and Emily Brontë, were all Yorkshire women born in Thornton and raised in Haworth, West Yorkshire. In the present day, the most prominent Yorkshire presence in English literature is that of the playwright, author, actor, screenwriter and commentator Alan Bennett, born 1934 in Leeds

David Bowie, who's father came from Tadcaster in North Yorkshire, The Sisters of Mercy, The Cult, Gang of Four, The Human League, Heaven 17, New Model Army, Soft Cell, Chumbawamba, The Wedding Present, The Mission and The House martins, The Kaiser Chiefs and the Arctic Monkeys, all have a connection to Yorkshire.

York

York is one of the most historic, fascinating, diverse and romantic cities in the world. Discover a rich history dating back to Roman times, world-class visitor attractions and fantastic family activities. York is also a wonderful haven for shopaholics looking for something a little different. From independent boutiques to all the high street names you'd expect in a modern city, York has something for everyone...

York is a renowned foodie heaven. Fine restaurants, laid back street cafés and relaxed pubs wait around every corner. Legend has it that there are 365 pubs in York, one for every day of the year, but there are at least 256 pubs confirmed.

Exciting, scary and fun - delve into York's bloody history at the York Dungeon. We know that when it comes to history - the horrible bits are the best....are you brave enough?

York Castle Museum offers you the opportunity to stroll down an authentically recreated Victorian Street, visit Dick Turpin's cell and find thousands of world-class arte facts.

Famous for "The Shambles" a narrow street of shops.

Jorvick, discover the sights, sounds and smells of an authentically recreated Viking city as it stood over 1,000 years ago. Enjoy a fascinating journey of discovery.

Site Times

The site will open at 12.00 on Thursday 4^{th} July 2013 and closes at 4pm on 7^{th} July 2013

Bookings

Booking form attached, electronic form available, please email: jhawtin_uk@yahoo.com.

All bookings must be returned by Sunday 17th June 2013 this is so we can allocate you appropriate pitches

Pitching

We will be attempting to clearly mark pitches and expect reasonable distances to be kept between tents, please control your own area so that no – one from the host region is put in the position of having to arrange for tents to be moved

Parents Meet

The parents meet hosted by Leeds DA will be held at Autherthaws Farm, Long Lane. Aughton. York YO4 4PW.

Details will be published in out and about under Yorkshire Region, Leeds D.A. Details and directions can also be found on line at www.leedsda.co.uk and www.yorkshireregion.co.uk.

Security

All officers of the meet will be in possession of a Walkie Talkie

All CCY will wear wristbands. There will be 2 colours one for under 18 and one for 18 and over. They will be required to wear these at all times during the rally, if a wrist band is removed for any reason it must be replaced ASAP. Please find Jill Hawtin Yorkshire RYLO for a replacement. Youth Leaders are required to wear their lanyards and ID badges at all times (displayed prominently) so that they can be easily identified by the working party and the security team.

The working party and the security team will be identified by a different lanyard and ID badge.

Security will also be wearing Hi vis vests. The security team are responsible for the perimeter security and safety of all on the site. If a problem with any CCY member is identified then any youth officer will be approached and expected to deal with the problem.

There will be only one perimeter gate in use and this will be managed by security and locked through the night. Anyone wanting to leave site in an emergency needs to contact Chief Camp Steward John Hawtin Yorkshire RYLO 07723310088.

You are welcome to arrive at whatever time you choose, you will be met with a warm welcome, however you need to let us know before the meet starts approx arrival time especially if after 11pm.

Parking and Access

If arriving by coach you will be requested to contact us an agreed distance from the site and you will be met at the junction of B1228 and Long Lane and escorted to site. Long Lane is a single track, tarmac road with passing places, if wet please avoid going onto the grass verges.

Youth cars will be allowed into the camping area to unload their equipment they will then need to park their cars in the car park area. RYLO's, SYLO's and all youth leaders will be able to have their vehicles next to their units.

There will be plenty of space for parking coaches and minibuses on site, should any problem be encountered accessing the site by coach, the coach will be unloaded on the roadside and the coach will be able to park at the farm a little further along Long Lane.

Hotels B & B

Should your driver require accommodation please get in touch and we will send you a list of what is available in the area.

First Aid

First Aid will be provided all weekend by the presence on site of, Dr Mark Chester GMC 6147378,

Mrs~Kay~Atkin~Bsc(Hons)Physiotherapy MCSP MAACP MACPSM HPC:PH81837 physio to British Water Polo Olympic Team

Mr Matthew Ashton Bsc(Hons) Physiotherapy MCSP HPC;PH96733

Programme of the event

A sample of the programme has been included, this is subject to alteration.

Alcohol

There will be a licensed bar run by an experienced youth leader and staffed by senior youth members in the evenings, there will be seating both internally and externally within a marked area. Only 18 and over will be allowed to purchase and drink alcohol. This is the only area on site where alcohol can be consumed. Any alcohol found outside of this area will be confiscated and handed into admin for collection on Sunday after the closing ceremony.

Toilets

There will be porta toilets located near the marquees, but as the camping area is situated some distance away from these we recommend that you bring your own chemical toilets for use in the camping area.

Please make sure your CCY respect the facilities by keeping them clean and tidy and if there are any problems with any of the facilities please report to Admin immediately.

Air/Rail

Anyone travelling by air or rail, please contact us.

Catering

The café will be provided throughout the weekend by volunteer members of Leeds DA who have a lot of experience, the aim is to provide food that appeals to our youth members but at a very reasonable cost. There will be a tuck shop on site, open when ever convenient.

For Saturday Tea we will be having a hog roast which will be free of charge to everyone. The café will still be open for anyone wanting to purchase alternative food.

Entertainment

The DJ will once again be Scottish Andy playing the music that gets the youth on their feet. The theme this year will be

"NEON PROM NIGHT"

We hope to have an area set up where there will be people on hand to apply neon face paint etc.

Ultra violet light will be used so the neon will stand out.

Alternative entertainment for during the day on Saturday is a "work in progress" situation; we hope to have some thing like a climbing wall or inflatable's such as a bouncy obstacle course etc.

Raffle

There will be a raffle; we would like to request a monetary donation from your Region / Section we intend to purchase a small number of prizes so that the prize draw does not go on for ever. Raffle tickets will be on sale all weekend, from admin when open and the tuck shop at other times.

Waste Management and Sanitation

Black waste bags will be placed in the goody bags handed out to all participants and extra ones will be available at Admin, please make sure they are used, then placed in the skip provided. Black bins will be placed strategically around the site, although we will have a team of litter pickers on duty throughout the meet please encourage the CCY to use the bins.
