| Data Protection | For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, The Camping and Caravanning Club are the sole data controller of all personal data provided to the Club by customers and prospective customers. In order to process your booking, the Club will need to collect certain personal details from you. These details will include your name and address, and where applicable credit/debit card or other payment details. The Club also needs to process and store your personal details for their own administration, marketing analysis and operational reviews. If your contact details have changed or you no longer wish to receive information on Self-catering Holidays please notify Club Headquarters in writing. |
| Complaints Procedure | Every effort has been made to ensure that you have an enjoyable and memorable holiday. If, however, we have not met your expectations, it is essential that you contact the Club's on-site representative immediately. If, after this, you feel that the issue has not been resolved to your satisfaction, please address your concerns in writing FAO Customer Services, UK Club Sites at the Club's Headquarters address. This procedure is designed to ensure the speediest possible investigation into your concerns. |
| Disclaimer | When you book a Self-Catering property, you enter into a contract with the Camping and Caravanning Club. Nothing in these conditions affects your normal statutory rights. While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the brochure/other material and prices at the time of printing, errors occasionally occur. You must therefore ensure you check all details of your chosen property and arrangements (including the price) with the Club at the time of booking. The Club will, however, use its best endeavours to notify you of any changes to or inaccuracies in any information contained in the brochure or otherwise provided to you as soon as reasonably practical after we become aware of the change or inaccuracy. The Club reserve the right to alter Terms & Conditions at any time. |
